Historical/Biographical Notes

Mary Macomber was nearly 6 years old when her family moved from West Newton to Lincoln in 1925, and spent the next six years in Lincoln, living in a house on Bedford Road. In later years she wrote a volume of personal reminiscences, Trying to get it right this time, my reminiscences. Chapter 9 of the book deals with her years as a child in Lincoln.

Scope and Content

The collection comprises printouts of email correspondence between Mary Macomber Leue and Rob Todd, President of Lincoln Historical Society; a listing of the chapters of her book; and a printout of Chapter 9, Lincoln and a cast of thousands ...

The collection is arranged topically.
